Make the payment out to Cooper City High School. If you have any further questions, please contact us at editorinchief@thelariatonline.com.

If you have a pre-made graphic, email it at the highest resolution possible in JPG or PDF format to the above email.

If you do not have a graphic, The Lariat can provide free graphic design. However, you must email a request within 24 hours of having paid for the advertisement. In the email should be the information wanted, general appearance of the graphic and dimensions of the advertisement. A graphic design member will email the potential graphic back to you for your approval.

Please note that ad space is limited and distributed on a first come basis, unless your business has a standing advertisement contract with The Lariat. All efforts will be made to place your ad in the current issue. If ad space for the current issue is full, you will be placed in the next available space/issue.

The Lariat has a tight deadline for printing, so please respond as promptly as possible to emails or phone calls from our leadership board.

Thank you!
